

PACIFIC PROFILES

P-40F-15 41-19821 Joan (see Profile 93) in company with P-40F-15 41-19825 Miss Alma from the 44th FS (see Profile 82). They are flying over the lagoon area just to the east of Munda, New Georgia.

Commander of the 68th FS, Major Raymond Williams (circled top left) and his pilots pose at Fighter Two, Guadalcanal, at the end of January 1943. The backdrop P-40F showcases one of the squadron's first shark-mouths. The other circled pilot is First Lieutenant Frederick Ploetz (see Profile 95).
