

This map summarises the main air movements on the morning of 3 March 1943. Prior to the large Allied strike, comparatively small missions were flown by RAAF Bostons and Beauforts. Then three formations of Zeros converged on the convoy just as the attack force was approaching at 1000.